

The Oral-Maxillofacial Surgeon databases from October 2004 through March 2008 were not published separately from the Practitioner databases due to multiple changes being made within the claims payment system. During this time period, practitioners were referred to the Practitioner and Medical Clinic databases for fee screens, authorization requirements and limitations on coverage for their services.

If you have any questions, please contact:
msapolicy@michigan.gov