*An application is usually considered administratively complete when a Natural Rivers Variance Application is completed in its entirety. However, some proposed projects may require additional information for the Zoning Review Board (Board) to evaluate the proposal. If an application for variance is received by the DNR prior to the application deadline, and the application is determined to be complete by the Natural Rivers Zoning Administrator, it will be considered by the Board on the corresponding meeting date noted above. If an application for variance is received by the DNR prior to the application deadline date, but determined to be incomplete, you will receive a correction request, and your proposal may need to be considered at a later meeting date.

Moved to the first Wednesday of the month to avoid any conflicts with the 4th of July holiday.
