St. Ignace Welcome Center

Every year, millions of people visit the Great Lakes State. Michigan's 14 Welcome Centers see more than 5 million visitors combined annually. Most tourists are in search of a variety of activities, including water recreation, scenery, camping, culinary experiences, vineyards, historic attractions, fun festivals, and so much more.

Whether you are from another state or right here in Michigan, MDOT wants to ensure your travel through Michigan is informative, welcoming, and fun!

Interested in having your literature displayed at MDOT Welcome Centers?

There is no cost to place your literature at MDOT-operated Welcome Centers.

A vendor wishing to distribute literature through MDOT's Welcome Center literature program must submit a copy to the statewide literature coordinator for approval. Once approved, the vendor will receive a commodity code and instructions for sending their literature to the MDOT Warehouse in Lansing or directly to each Welcome Center.

Partnerships and Literature Displays:

Partnership and display opportunities vary at each Welcome Center but can include display cases, special events, landscape plantings, and flower beds.

Local groups and organizations interested in partnering with MDOT Welcome Centers should contact their local Welcome Center directly to discuss partnership opportunities.
