

COMMISSIONER JANICE VALLETTE BIOGRAPHY

As a retired banker, Commissioner Janice Vallette, affiliates as an Independent on the Michigan Independent Citizens Redistricting Commission (MICRC).

For nearly 50 years, Commissioner Vallette lives in Highland. She applied for the MICRC because she feels it would be an interesting way to serve her community. In addition, Commissioner Vallette believes it would provide her with an opportunity to ensure that all Michiganders have a fair chance at electing people who represent their views and fight for their concerns.
