

ADDENDUM—Additional Statement of Work Contract Activities—Expert Witness Support For Pending Litigation

In addition to the Standard Contract Terms and all Appendixes concerning the Contractor's work contract activities, and as specifically authorized in Appendix C(A)(d)(i) concerning participation in litigation, the Contractor shall, during the contract term and term of any extensions:

Provide expert support services to the Commission and its attorneys in connection with lawsuits pending on the date of execution of this Addendum challenging the Commission's redistricting plans. Expert support services include, without limitation:

1. providing expert witness testimony.
2. providing hybrid witness testimony.
3. providing any necessary lay witness testimony concerning information relevant to pending litigation within the Contractor's personal knowledge as the Commission's expert.
4. providing expert analysis and consulting services to legal counsel for the Commission within the scope of Contractor's expertise, including without limitation racial-bloc voting analysis and partisan-fairness analysis.
5. managing and developing data and other evidentiary content, within Contractor's field of expertise, to assist the Commission and its attorneys.
6. providing other litigation assistance within the scope of Contractor's expertise.

Services within the scope of this Addendum are directly related to litigation that is pending as of the date of the execution of this Addendum and shall be provided pursuant to the legal rules governing such litigation services, including those of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, Federal Rules of Evidence, any applicable state laws, federal and state law concerning privileges, and all applicable rules of legal ethics. Compensation pursuant to this Addendum is not dependent on the nature of any testimony given, conclusions reached, or opinion offered by the Contractor.
