Determination: Approval recommended as requested Approval recommended with adjustment
 Approval granted (FFS) Outside the scope of MIHP; Defer to MHP

MDHHS MIHP exception approval recommended/provided for the following:

- Enroll infant between 12 through 15 months of age
- Continue MIHP visits after 18 months of age
- Enroll beneficiary whose enrollment showed no risk
- Provide additional maternal visits due to NICU admission

Additional Reminders or Specifications (if applicable):

- Enrollment must occur by 15 months of age and MIHP discharge must occur by 18 months of age with transition to a more age-appropriate program.
- If additional visits requested:
MDHHS MIHP recommends ____ additional visits above policy, for a total of ____ visits.
- Outside the scope of MIHP: the MHP can provide further guidance and approval if they support continuation of visits. Care coordination and billing inquiries should be directed to the MHP for services that extend after completion of MIHP services. Per Medicaid there is no prior authorization needed for additional visits beyond the scope of MIHP, that are reimbursed by the health plan. As a reminder, infants must be discharged from MIHP by 18 months, even if services are continued based on MHP approval.

Additional comments or clarification:

Upon Completion of Part B: Send to Medicaid Health Plan if applicable (or to the MIHP Provider if not applicable).

PART C: To be completed by Medicaid Health Plan staff and submitted to the MIHP Provider.

If part C is not applicable:

MDHHS MIHP review only; MHP authorization not required and remaining fields below are to be blank.
